Girard Partners Supports Continued Growth with New Hires

KING OF PRUSSIA, PA (December 2010) — Girard Partners, an integrated wealth management solutions firm, has welcomed Pamela Donovan as Office Manager and Amanda Craig as Administrative Assistant.

“Pamela and Amanda are enormous assets to the Girard Partners team,” said President and CIO, Kevin Norris. “They bring a broad spectrum of client service ability to our firm, which significantly aligns with our goal to increasingly offer clients a more personal, trusted experience when dealing with their investment advisor.”

In her role as Operations Manager, Pamela Donovan is responsible for responding to daily client inquiries, performing investment research, and the overall alignment of investment and wealth management issues as it pertains to the firm’s clients. Ms. Donovan comes to Girard Partners with over 20 years of experience in the financial services industry. She previously served as a Service Representative and Mutual Fund Specialist at SEI Investments for 12 years. Ms. Donovan received her B.S. degree in Business Administration from Kutztown University.

Amanda Craig's role as Administrative Assistant entails providing administrative support, database management, and assisting with marketing programs. She recently spent two years at Femeco Real Estate. Ms. Craig attended Gettysburg College, where she received a B.S. in English.
